36. The Form of Medical Certificate shall be as specified in Form «F» appended to these regulations.

37. An employee discharged on other grounds shall have no claim for an invalid pension even though he may produce medical evidence of incapacity for service.

In the event of death of an employee while in service, the gratuity shall be subject to a minimum of 18 times the emoluments of the employee at the time of his death, provided that in no case it shall exceed Rs. 24,000/-.

Provided further that, except in the case of a bachelor who has not adopted any child, the amount of gratuity admissible as above shall be reduced by two months' «emoluments» or «pay» as the case may be subject to a maximum of Rs. 3,600/-. In cases where the gratuity admissible is less than two months' «emoluments» or «pay» as the case may be the same shall be resumed by the Board against the family pension benefits admissible under these regulations.

SECTION VII

Emoluments and Average Emoluments

49. The term "Emoluments" for the purposes of Sections V and VI means the emoluments which the employee was receiving immediately before his retirement and includes:

- (a) substantive pay in respect of a permanent post other than a tenure post held in a substantive capacity;
- (b) personal pay which is granted in lieu of loss of substantive pay in respect of a permanent post other than a tenure post;
- (c) special pay attached to a permanent post, other than a tenure post, when the special pay has been sanctioned permanently and the post is held in a substantive capacity;
- (d) save as otherwise provided in clause (e) below one half of the difference between the total of the emoluments referred to in clause (a), (b) and (c) above and the pay actually drawn in higher officiating or temporary appointments; or one half of the pay drawn in temporary or officiating appointments;
- (e) If an employee holding a permanent post in a substantive capacity:—
 - (i) officiates in a higher permanent post (other than a tenure post) or holds a higher temporary post (other than a tenure post) borne on a cadre which includes permanent posts on the same time scale as the temporary post, continuously for not less than three years, and retires or dies while so officiating or holding the higher post; or

- (ii) is confirmed in such higher permanent post at any time during the last three years of his service after having officiated in that post continuously for three years or more, his emoluments for pension in respect of the higher post for any period beyond three years' continuous service in that post shall be determined under clause (a) to (d) above as if he held, in a substantive capacity, a permanent post on a time scale identical with that of the higher post.

Explanations:—

1. For computing the length of continuous service in respect of the higher post referred to above, all kinds of leave, all periods during which an employee officiated in a permanent post or held a temporary post on identical or higher time scale, and the time spent on deputation or foreign service shall be included; provided that it is certified that but for his proceeding on leave or serving in other post(s) or going on deputation or foreign service, as the case may be, the employee concerned would have officiated in or held the higher post.

2. If immediately before his retirement or death, an employee has been absent from duty on leave with allowances, his emoluments for the purposes of calculating service gratuity and/or death-cum-retirement gratuity shall be taken at what they would have been had he not been absent from duty.

Provided that the amount of gratuity is not increased on account of increase in pay not actually drawn and that the benefit of higher officiating or temporary pay is given only if it is certified that he would have continued to hold the higher officiating or temporary appointment but for his proceeding on leave.

3. In cases where an employee in quasi-permanent service is appointed substantively to a permanent post any time during the last three years of his service, the emoluments drawn by him in quasi-permanent capacity during the period he was not holding a permanent post shall be treated as if drawn in a permanent post held in substantive capacity.

50. The term «average emoluments» means the average calculated upon the last three years of service.

Explanation.

1. If during the last three years of his service an employee has been absent from duty on leave with allowances, or having been suspended has been reinstated without forfeiture of service, his emoluments, for the purpose of ascertaining the average, should be taken at what they would have been had he not been absent from duty or suspended. Provided always that except as provided in explanation 2 below, his pension shall not be increased on account of increase in pay not actually drawn.

2. In the case of an employee who, while on leave preparatory to retirement, is confirmed in the higher post which he held in an officiating or temporary capacity before proceeding on such leave, his substantive emoluments in the higher post, which he would have drawn had he been on duty, shall be taken into account for the purpose of calculation of average emoluments.

3. If during the last three years of his service, an employee has been absent from duty on leave without allowances (not counting for pension) or suspended under such circumstances that the period of suspension does not count as service, the periods so passed shall be disregarded in the calculation of the average, an equal period before the three years being included.

4. For the purpose of calculation of «average emoluments», an increase of pay which took effect during the currency of earned leave not exceeding 120 days in any one spell during the last three years of service shall be included for the purpose of this regulation even though the increase in pay due to promotion or increment is not actually drawn during the earned leave.

5. Excepting as provided in explanations 1, 3 and 4 above only emoluments actually received shall be included in the calculation. For example, when an employee is allowed to count time retrospectively towards increase of pay, but does not receive retrospectively the intermediate periodic increments these intermediate increments shall not be reckoned in the calculations.

51. Allowances which do not count as part of an employee's pay, but which are specially intended to provide for expenses incidental to his duty, shall be excluded.

SECTION VIII

Family Pension

52. A Family Pension, not exceeding the amount specified in regulation 53 below may be granted to the family of an employee who dies, whether while in service or after retirement, if at the time of death, the retired employee was in receipt of a compensation invalid, retiring or superannuation pension. In the case of death while in service, the employee should have completed a minimum period of one year of service. Provided that the employee was on a pensionable establishment whether temporary or permanent.

53. (1) The amount of family pension shall be as follows:—

Pay of the employee	Monthly pension of widow/ /widower/children
(a) Rs. 800 and above	12% of pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 150/-
(b) Rs. 200 and above but below Rs. 800/-	15% of pay subject to a maximum of Rs. 96/- and minimum of Rs. 60/-
(c) Below Rs. 200/-	30% of pay subject to a minimum of Rs. 25/-

(2) «Pay» for the purpose of this regulation means the pay which the employee was drawing on the date of the death while in service or immediately before his retirement and includes:—

- (a) Pay, and
- (b) special pay and personal pay, and
- (c) any other emoluments which may be specially classed as pay by the Board.

Explanation:— If on the date of his death while in service or immediately before his retirement an employee has been absent from duty on leave (including extraordinary leave) or suspension «Pay» means the pay which he drew immediately before proceeding on such leave or suspension.

«Provided that:—

- (i) For a period of seven years from the date of death or till the date on which the employee would have reached the normal age of superannuation, had he remained alive, whichever period is shorter, the pension payable under this Regulation will be at 50% of the basic pay last drawn, subject to a maximum of twice the pension admissible above.
- (ii) The pension payable thereafter will be at the rates laid down in Regulation 53(1).
- (iii) This concession will not be applicable if the employee had put in less than seven years' continuous service prior to his death.

Note: In the case of a person who dies while on extension of service, the date upto which the extension of service had been sanctioned to him before his death will be deemed to be the normal date of superannuation».

54. «Family» for the purposes of this Section will include the following relatives of the employee:—

- (a) Wife, in the case of a male employee;
- (b) Husband, in the case of a female employee;

- (c) In the case of unmarried daughter until she attains the age of 21 years of marriage, whichever is earlier.

Note: In the case where there are two or more widows, pension shall be payable to the eldest surviving widow. On her death or re-marriage, as the case may be it shall be payable to the next surviving widow, if any. The term 'eldest' would mean seniority with reference to the date of marriage.

56. Pension awarded under this Section shall not be payable to more than one member of an employee's family at the same time. It shall first be admissible to the widow/widower and thereafter to the minor children.

57. In the event of re-marriage or death of the widow-widower the pension shall be granted to the minor children through their natural guardian. In dispute cases, however, payments shall be made through a legal guardian.

58. As in the case of the grant of an ordinary pension, future good conduct of the recipient is an implied condition of every grant of a pension under this Section. The Board reserves to itself the right of withholding or withdrawing such a pension or any part of it if the recipient be convicted of serious crime or be guilty of grave misconduct, and the decision of the Board in all such matters shall be final.

59. All employees governed by these regulations shall furnish details of their 'family' as defined in regulation 54 in Form 'E' appended to these regulations in duplicate to the Head of Department who shall countersign the same and forward one copy to the Accounts Officer, who shall acknowledge receipt of these communications. The duplicate copy shall be pasted in the Service Book of the employee. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep these particulars upto date. Additions and alterations in this statement shall be made by the Head of the Department/Accounts Officer from time to time on receipt of information from the employee.

Where a pensioner desires to draw his pension at a place other than the office of the Accounts Officer, he shall make a request in writing to that effect to the Accounts Officer and the pension shall be remitted to him by money order or a demand draft at his cost, if so desired by him. In such cases, a life certificate issued by a Magistrate or a Gazetted Officer shall be sent to the Accounts Officer with every claim for pension.

70. Notwithstanding anything contained in regulation 68 above, the Accounts Office shall, at least once a year, require proof independent of that furnished by the life certificate of the continued existence of the pensioner. For this purpose he should require the personal attendance and due identification of all pensioners who are not incapacitated by bodily illness or infirmity from so attending, and in all cases where such inability may be alleged, he should require proof thereof in addition to the proof submitted of the pensioner's existence.

Payment to Agents.

71. A pensioner may be permitted at the discretion of the Chairman to draw his pension through a duly authorised agent approved by the Chairman provided the agent execute a bond to refund overpayments and produces a life certificate at least once a year duly signed by a Magistrate or a Gazetted Officer. 74. Subject to the provisions of the preceding regulation, the arrears of pension for the deceased pensioner may be paid to the heirs of the deceased without production of a legal authority to the extent of Rs. 500/- under the orders of the Chairman, after such enquiry into the right and title of the claimants as may be deemed sufficient. Any excess above Rs. 500/- may similarly be paid under the orders of the Chairman on execution of an indemnity bond with such sureties as may be stipulated if the Chairman is satisfied of the right and title of the claimants and considers that undue delay and hardship would be caused by insisting on the production of letters of administration. In any case of doubt payment shall be made only to the person producing Legal Authority.

Family Pension.

75. (i) On receiving information of death of an employee while in service, the Head of the Department shall send a letter as prescribed in Form 'J' appended to these regulations to the family of the deceased and ask for the necessary documents mentioned therein.

(ii) On receiving the documents referred to in clause (i) above the pension sanctioning authority shall sanction the family pension as in Form 'K' appended to these regulations and send all these documents along with the Service Book of the employee to the Accounts Officer who will then issue the Pension Payments Order to the beneficiary.

76. Where death occurs after retirement, the widow/widower shall be required to send an application for the grant of family pension as in form 'L' appended to these regulations together with the death certificate of the pensioner and the pensioner's part of the Pension Payment Order to the Accounts Officer. If the widow/widower is also not there and the family pension is payable to the minor children through their natural guardian, the guardian shall apply on behalf of the children with two copies of his photograph and the other necessary documents. The Accounts Officer shall thereafter issue a fresh Pension Payment Order and shall make the necessary payment.

No fresh sanction for the payment of the family pension shall be necessary.

SECTION XI

Commutation of Pensions

77. An employee of the Board shall be entitled, subject to the conditions hereinafter specified, to commute for a lumpsum payment any portion not exceeding one-third of any pension which has been or may be granted to him under these regulations

Provided that an employee against whom judicial or a departmental proceeding has been instituted or a pensioner against whom any such proceeding has been instituted or continued under regulation 7 shall not be permitted to commute any part of his pension during the pendency of such proceedings.

78. (1) On receipt of an application for commutation, the sanctioning authority shall transmit to the applicant a copy of the Accounts Officer's certificate of the lumpsum payable on commutation in the event of his being reported by such medical authority as the sanctioning authority may prescribe to be a fit subject for commutation and shall at the same time instruct him to appear for examination before the said authority within three months from the date of its order, or if he has applied for commutation in advance of the date of his retirement, within three months of that date, but in no case earlier than the actual date of retirement. This intimation shall constitute administrative sanction to commutation, but shall lapse if the medical examination does not take place within the period prescribed in the sanctioning order. If the applicant does not appear for examination before the said medical authority, within the prescribed period, the sanctioning authority may, at his discretion, renew administrative sanction for a further period of three months without obtaining a fresh application for the commutation of pension. The applicant may withdraw his application by a written notice despatched at any time before the medical examination is due to take place, but this option shall expire on his appearance before a medical authority.

Provided that if the medical authority directs that his age for the purpose of commutation shall be assumed to be greater than his actual age, the applicant may withdraw his application by written notice despatched within two weeks from the date on which he receives intimation of the revised sum payable on commutation, or, if this sum is already stated in the sanctioning order, within two weeks from the date on which he receives intimation of the finding of the medical authority.

Notes:— If the applicant does not withdraw in writing his application within the period of two weeks prescribed above, he shall be deemed to have accepted the sum offered.

The table of present values is given at Table II in the Appendix. In the event of the table of present values applicable to an applicant having been modified between the date of administrative sanction to commutation and the date on which commutation is due to become absolute, payment shall be made in accordance with the modified table, but it shall be open to the applicant if the modified table is less favourable to him than that previously in force to withdraw his application by notice in writing despatched within 14 days of the date on which he receives notice of the modification.

80. If the pensioner dies on or after the day on which commutation became absolute but before receiving the commutation value, this value shall be paid to his heirs.

81. The authority competent to sanction commutation of pension in the case of employees whose maximum monthly salary exclusive of allowances is less than Rs. 1,000/- shall be the Chairman, and in every other case the Board.

82. An application for commutation of pension shall be made in Part I of Form 'M' appended to these regulations and addressed, if the applicant is still in service or has retired but his pension has not yet been sanctioned to the Chairman through the Head of the Department in which he is or was employed.

87. The Medical Officer shall arrange for the medical examination of the applicant by the medical authority prescribed in regulation 87 as early as possible within the period prescribed and inform the applicant direct.

88. (1) Before any commutation administratively sanctioned becomes absolute, the applicant shall be examined by the proper medical authority hereinafter prescribed;

(2) The Medical authority shall be —

89. The Accounts Officer, on receipt of the completed Forms 'M' and 'N' shall arrange for the payment of the appropriate commuted value and for the corresponding reduction of pension. Form 'N' containing the signature and thumb and finger impression taken in the presence of the medical authority shall be verified with those received with the pension payment order, before disbursing to the employee the commuted value.

Note: — If the medical certificate prescribes that more than five years shall be added to the applicant's actual age, the Accounts Officer shall inform the applicant of the revised sum payable on commutation.
